Procedure

Applying for an Exemption from National Pension Insurance Premiums

Do you have difficulty paying your National Pension Insurance premiums? Ota City has an exemption scheme that can help.

You must have a personal identification document, Basic Pension Number Notice, and other documents to apply. After you apply for the scheme, the Japan Pension Service Branch Office will assess the income that you (the applicant), your spouse, and your head of household received in the previous year.

If your application is approved, you will be exempted from paying all or part of your National Pension Insurance premiums. Applications may be made retroactively for premiums owed up to two years and one month in the past. A new application must be submitted each year.

Please visit the Ota City website for more information.
