Ota's Festival of Wa

"Ota's Festival of Wa" is an opportunity to encounter various aspects of traditional Japanese culture. Why not experience the local culture, passed down from generation to generation, and feel the "soul" of Japan?

Hands-on workshops

- 1 Flower arrangement, tea ceremony, and calligraphy
- 2 Traditional musical instruments (koto, shamisen, shakuhachi, and kotsuzumi)
- 3 Japanese dance

* An advance application is required for all workshops.
 * The number of workshops that can be attended and participation fees differ depending on the kinds of activities joined. Visit the Ota City Cultural Promotion Association's website for details.
 Please note that no interpretation from Japanese into other languages will be provided during the workshops. All activities will be conducted in Japanese.
